

IS AUSTIN McNAMARA SANE?
A Question Raised by William McNeill After his Own Judicial Discharge.

When William McNeill, a young man who recently escaped from the Queens County Asylum for the Insane, while he was carried, he awoke, under the influence of drugs, and where he was imprisoned, he alleged, because he harbored a dislike of Justice Cutler, who had told his lawyer, George A. Mott, that he had met, while in the asylum, an old man named Austin McNamara, who he was satisfied, was perfectly sane, and he asked Mr. Mott to secure his release. Upon investigation, the lawyer learned that McNamara, who for eighteen years had lived at Laurel Hill, Long Island, and had for twenty-three years been sexton of the Mortuary Chapel at Calvary Cemetery, having been appointed there by Archbishop Hughes, had been in the asylum for two years, and that he had been with his wife and children about his property, and in 1878, when his son demanded the use of his horse and wagon and assumed his care, he came to Jones's Wood just before they did. Later they were separated, and the son never returned, and one of those from whom the son could not return. There were special competitions at shooting and shooting.
